

THIRD PARTY CALL ISSUED BY DIXON

National Convention Will be Held in Chicago, August 5.

STATES URGED TO SEND DELEGATES

Time Is Declared Ripe for Nation-Wide Progressive Movement on Nonsectional Lines. Thus Far No Issues Have Been Authoritatively Stated.

New York, July 7.—A call to the people of the United States who are in sympathy with the "national progressive movement" to send delegates to the national convention to open in Chicago on August 5 was given out this afternoon by United States Senator Joseph M. Dixon, of Montana. Theodore Roosevelt's campaign manager, who is signed by members of the committee, said that the convention in Chicago, and also includes signatures of Roosevelt followers in forty States.

"The Territories have no place in the national convention and will not be considered," declared Senator Dixon, in commenting upon the signatures. "As for the missing eight States, the most of them probably will send delegates, although they have not taken part in the call. Maine, for instance, postponed definite action because there is now a strong fight on in the primary, with the sympathy running in favor of the progressive movement. Delaware, North Carolina, Arkansas and Nevada probably will not send delegates to the convention. Mississippi and South Carolina may possibly be unrepresented."

"Each State will be expected to select its delegates by its own representative body. The representation will be equal to that of the previous conventions. This is considered advisable, since this convention is to be a national body, and will certainly be composed of a large number of delegates from all the States. It is not a party convention, but a national one."

"In all probability the convention will adopt the name 'National Progressive' for the new party. Thus far no issues have been authoritatively stated."

The call says in substance: "To the People of the United States: Without regard to past political differences, who, through repeated elections, have placed in the White House the crooked political boss, and of the privileged classes behind him, is so strong in the two old parties that no helpful movement in the real interests of our country can come out of them."

"Who believe that the time has come for a national progressive movement on nonsectional lines, so that the people may be served in sincerity and truth by an honest, unfeignedly free and unobscured government, and who believe in the right and capacity of the people to rule themselves and effectively to control all the agencies of their government and who hold that only through social and industrial reform, and through the most perfect and permanent protection of the people, can the Government be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

"Who believe that through the movement of the people, and the change demanded by the modern industrial revolution, the Government can be made to become, and has in fact become, government by the sordid interests that control the few."

FOUR KILLED IN LABOR RIOT

Pitched Battle Between Union and Non-Union Timber Workers.

Lake Charles, La., July 7.—Four men were killed and four seriously injured this afternoon in a pitched battle between union and non-union timber workers and guards employed by a lumber mill at Grabow, La., a mill town five miles north of this city. The dead are Charles Hall, Roy Morton, Edie Brown and an unknown Italian. Hall, Morton and Brown were union men.

A party of 200 union men from Deridder, under the leadership of A. L. Emerson, president of the Brotherhood of Timberworkers, went to Grabow, where a strike is in progress, to hold a meeting. The proprietors of the mill and his non-union employees met the crowd, and in a wordy row that followed some one drew a revolver. This was followed by a perfect fusillade.

Sheriff Reid left immediately on a train for Grabow, accompanied by the coroner and a detachment of Company K, Louisiana National Guard, will follow as soon as the soldiers can be assembled. Trouble has been brewing for some time, and feeling was increased by a recent visit of several soldiers and union speakers to the mill district. The mill at Grabow employs but sixty workmen.

Organizing to Attack Mill. Shreveport, La., July 7.—According to a special dispatch to the Shreveport Times, tonight, union sympathizers are said to be gathering at the camp of the Gateway Lumber Company, a few miles west of Deridder, La., where a riot occurred today, with a view to attacking the Gateway mill before daylight tomorrow.

HONOR WOMEN OF CIVIL WAR

Proposed Monumental Building to Cost Not Less Than $700,000.

Washington, July 7.—A resolution in Senate favor of the erection of a memorial to the women of the Civil War was introduced today by Senator Charles D. Hille, of Ohio. The memorial, which will be reported to the Senate for adoption as a result of action taken by the Senate Library Committee today, is a monumental structure, in character, and shall be used as the permanent headquarters of the American Red Cross.

The resolution is to contribute $100,000 for the site and building, which shall cost not less than $700,000. The Government contribution shall not be payable until an additional sum of $100,000 has been raised by the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States. Provision is made for a committee to supervise the purchase of the site and construction of the building, the design of which shall be approved by the Committee on Fine Arts.

Title to the building and ground shall be held by the United States, but the Red Cross shall be responsible for its care and maintenance.

WILLIAM R. SMITH DEAD

Owned Probably Finest Collection of Burns' Works in the World.

Washington, July 7.—William R. Smith, who owned the National Botanic Garden and owned the probably the finest collection of Robert Burns' works in the world, died here today. He was eighty-four years old, a Scotchman, and for sixty years had been head of the garden. He had been head of the garden for many years, and his collection of Burns' works was the finest in the world.

Mr. Smith bequeathed his collection to the "Board of Trustees" in the hope that it would be used to preserve the republic in pure democracy. With "democracy left out" the will named as member of this board Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Speaker Clark, Thomas Nelson Page and Dr. Charles C. McCarthy.

WRECKS STIR CONGRESSMEN

Demand for More Legislation to Strengthen Safety Appliances.

Washington, July 7.—Further legislation to strengthen the laws governing the use of safety appliances was discussed by members of the House, who have been stirred by the two disastrous railroad wrecks at Lake Erie, Pa., and Corning, N. Y., in which over sixty lives were lost.

Representative Adamson, chairman of the House Interstate Commerce Committee, was inclined to discourage any new legislation on the ground that present laws properly enforced would be sufficient.

Many members declared that the two wrecks had created a sentiment in favor of the Martin bill, which would require a day's work for railroad telegraphers and employees operating mechanical safety appliances.

PREPARED FOR INVADERS

Government Advised That Royalists Are Advancing Into Republic.

Lisbon, July 7.—The government is advised that the royalists, who have been hovering near the frontier for several weeks, are advancing into the republic between the villages of Tuy and Galdakos. The government is amply prepared for the invaders. An encounter is expected within a few days.

Disorder continues in various parts of the country. Bombs are being thrown and arrests being made nearly every day.

Continued Warm Weather Promised

Washington, July 7.—Continued warm weather over the Rocky Mountains and over the interior middle and southern districts of the westward was promised for this week in a bulletin of the Weather Bureau to-night.

"The highest temperatures," the bulletin announced, "will probably be experienced in the great central valleys and along the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains. There will be no well defined storms, and precipitation will be limited to local thunder storms or heat showers that will not overspread extensive areas in any one day."

on the south Atlantic and East Gulf States, the showers probably will be less frequent than during the week just ended."

Thomas Lee Moore, whose name appears in the call from Virginia, is former United States District Attorney for the Western District, his home being in Roanoke. He married the daughter of Admiral Robley D. Evans.

HILLES DECLINES TO TAKE POSITION

Will Not Accept Chairmanship of National Committee.

CANVASS IS MADE OF AVAILABLE MAN

Nothing Definite Will Be Done Until Wishes of President Taft Are Ascertained—Subcommittee Will Meet To-Day in Washington to Take Up Matter.

Washington, July 7.—The real work of organizing the Republican campaign for 1912 will be taken up tomorrow, when the subcommittee of the Republican National Convention will meet and select a chairman. All the members of the subcommittee are here, and will be the guests of President Taft at a luncheon at the White House tomorrow afternoon, when the name of the chairman probably will be announced. President Taft will arrive early tomorrow from his summer home at Beverly, Mass., to meet the committee.

The subcommittee was advised that Charles D. Hille, who has been considered all along for the position, would not accept the chairmanship, and a general canvass of men available was made during the day. The subcommittee will meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and will consider the names suggested, and probably recommend some one to the President for chairman.

The names include Chas. F. Daugherty and Garret Thompson of Ohio; Henry S. New and James A. Heningway of Indiana; and William Barnes, Jr., of New York.

To Consult With Taft. Nothing definite will be done, however, until the committee consults with President Taft and ascertains his wishes. There seems to be an unanimous sentiment in the committee that an experienced political leader should manage the campaign, and an effort will be made to name a man who is known by every precinct committee man and county chairman in the United States as one member of the committee expressed it.

Besides naming a chairman, the committee will recommend that a campaign committee of five representatives be appointed to constitute the chief advisors of the national chairman and to be independent of the usual advisory committees.

The subcommittee members are General Powell Clayton, of Alabama; Roy West Hilder, of Iowa; Charles B. Warren, Michigan; Thos. K. Niedringhaus, Missouri; R. W. Estabrook, New Hampshire; Senator Sanders, of Tennessee; Alvan A. Martin, Virginia; and Sam A. Perkins, of Washington.

Reception at White House. Tomorrow night there will be a large reception at the White House, to which President Taft has invited the members of the national committee, the Republican members in both houses of Congress, chairman of all the Republican State committee men, and other political leaders.

William H. Hayward of New York, secretary of the national committee, who arrived here today, probably will be re-elected. He said he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

Mr. Hayward said that the reason for his resignation was that he was tired, and that he was not a candidate for re-election, and if the committee desires to select some one else it would be perfectly satisfactory to him.

THREE KILLED IN WRECK

Several Others Injured in Collision Between Two Interurban Cars.

Marion, Ind., July 7.—Three persons were killed and more than a dozen seriously injured today in a collision between two interurban cars on the Marion, Bluffton and Eastern traction line in this city this afternoon. The dead were William Lentz, Marion glass worker, George Dolan, Uphand, Ind., school teacher, and Benjamin J. Albers, Marion National Military Home, barber.

The collision was between a regular car and one loaded with merry-makers going for Goldensville Park, an amusement resort one-half mile east of this city, and occurred on a straight track. No cause had been assigned for the accident late tonight.

The two cars were telescoped, the heavy interurban passing halfway through the lighter park car. The park car was crowded, and contained many women, but only one was seriously hurt.

BOY STARTS $50,000 FIRE

Boston Youth, to See Engines Run, Throws Firecracker Into Hay.

Boston, July 7.—Because a small boy wanted to see the engines run, the police allege damage estimated at $50,000 was done by fire in the Charlestown district yesterday. The Boston and Maine Railroad warehouse, 70, 72, filled with hay, was destroyed, and the wagon and carriage stock factory of E. A. Gillett & Sons was badly damaged.

The firemen had a hard fight to prevent conflagration as the roofs of numerous wooden dwellings in the vicinity were built of shingles, and while other nearby factories were endangered.

A boy, ten years old, was arrested, and the police said that upon being questioned he confessed that he started the fire by throwing a lighted firecracker into the hay in the warehouse. He was placed under charge of a probation officer, and will be taken into the juvenile court later.

GOVERNOR MANN TO ATTEND

Conference to Investigate Plan for Marketing Cotton Crop.

Macon, Ga., July 7.—Reports received at the headquarters of the Southern States cotton corporation indicate that the conference on July 12 to investigate the plan for marketing the cotton crop of the South on a 15 cents basis will be largely attended.

Governor Mann of Virginia has announced that he will attend and Governor Colquhoun of Texas, Brewer of Mississippi, O'Neal of Alabama, and Hooper of Tennessee, have signified their intention of being present, or having men there to represent them. The part of the Southern States cotton corporation will be represented, and a large delegation is expected from Texas. Telegrams were sent yesterday to seventeen Governors, urging them to be present.

WILL BE PRESENTED TO-DAY

Final Draft of Archibald Indictment Approved by Committee.

Washington, July 7.—The final draft of the impeachment indictment against Robert W. Archibald, of the Commercial Union Assurance Company, was approved yesterday by the House Judiciary Committee. Chairman Clayton will present it to the House on Monday, ask for immediate consideration, and submit a list of seven managers on the part of the House to conduct the trial before the Senate.

It is customary in the House to follow the action of the committee, where there is no division. Members of the Judiciary Committee predicted that the resolution could be adopted after a brief debate.

Puzzling to Doctors

Man in Connecticut Perspires Only on One Side of His Body.

Central Village, Conn., July 7.—An employee of one of the factories here named Vanness has furnished a puzzling problem for the doctors. The man perspires on only one side of his body, the other side being dry as a stick. Asks what he thought was the reason for his peculiar condition. Vanness said: "Well, my father was French and mother German and possibly the German dried up the French part of me."

HATPIN GAINS VICTORY

Louisiana Senate Sidelocks Measure Against Woman's Weapon.

Baton Rouge, La., July 7.—The hatpin is woman's weapon of defense. It is like a dagger, and Senator Vincent, of Calcasieu Parish, in the Senate floor yesterday, "I am afraid to both, and the man who doesn't want to get stung, had better get out of the way. I'm opposed to the Dupont hatpin bill."

Other State Senators agreed with Mr. Vincent, and the bill providing that points of hatpins should be either protected or shortened was sidetracked indefinitely.

TAKE BRIDE AS PASSENGER

Graham-White, on Return From Honeymoon, Makes Spectacular Flight.

London, July 7.—Returning to-day from his honeymoon, Claude Graham-White made a flight in his aeroplane at Folkestone. Several thousand Belgians, who had crowded the channel for the day's short, cheered the aviator enthusiastically. At the close of the day Graham-White started for London in his aeroplane, taking his bride as a passenger.

Aviator Verrier made the flight from Hendon to Brighton in an hour and eight minutes.

GRAVE SITUATION ARISES

Scarcity of Meats Likely to Follow Spread of Scourge Among Cattle.

London, July 7.—Owing to the spread of the foot and mouth scourge among cattle in Surrey, a grave situation has arisen, and the Board of Agriculture has issued an order closing all markets for cattle. The movement of cattle is now prohibited in the county of London and in portions of Kent, Middlesex and Surrey. Altogether, thirty-six outbreaks have occurred since the disease was discovered. It is feared that London will experience a serious scarcity of meat and prices are already soaring.

TRIUMPHAL ENTRY INTO CHIHUAHUA

General Huerta Receives Warm Welcome From Foreigners.

SERVES TO ALLAY NERVOUS TENSION

Fear That Season of Looting Would Follow Retreat of Ragged Rebel Army Gives Way to Rejoicing at Sight of Mexican Regulars and Their Victorious Leader.

At General Huerta's Headquarters, Chihuahua, Mex., July 7.—Triumphantly, General Victoriano Huerta, commander-in-chief of the government forces in Northern Mexico, at 10 o'clock today rode into the city of Chihuahua. General Telles and General Habago, in command of two brigades of cavalry, entered the city in the morning, but were immediately dispatched northward toward Casas Grandes to head off the fleeing rebel army.

To the number of foreign flags raised many days ago by foreign residents, who feared that a season of looting would follow the retreat of the rebel army, were added hundreds of Mexican banners, giving the city a holiday aspect.

Reduces High Tension.

The entry of Huerta's army reduced the high nervous tension under which foreign residents had lived ever since the rebel army entered the city. The same people who until a week ago were loud in their protestations of friendship for General Orozco and his ragged and undisciplined army stood in the streets, applauding the victorious General Huerta and his colorful troops. The coming of Huerta means the restoration of railroad communication with Torreon, though it simultaneously cuts off the city on the north from Juarez and the American border. Torreon has been cut off from supplies and business had long been at a standstill. Many mines now will be reopened. General Huerta has spent two months in rebuilding 195 miles of railroad destroyed by the rebels as they retreated from Torreon.

New Complications Arise.

Washington, July 7.—Just at the time when the officials of the State and War Departments had been brought to the hope that the Mexican revolution was near an end, new and graver complications in the Mexican situation are beginning to loom up.

Ominous reports are beginning to reach Washington that Japan may take a hand in the situation, and that the Mexican rebels, under General Orozco, are expecting aid from the Japanese.

Sorely in Need of Arms. Such aid, if it comes, will not be given in direct fashion. It will come in the form of arms and ammunition, so badly needed by the insurgents. It is feared because Japan has shut off the supply of arms and ammunition from America that Orozco and his forces have been reduced to the straits in which they now find themselves.

Hope of Revolutionists. The hope of the revolutionists, as it is conveyed in dispatches, is to hurry into the province of Sonora, capture a seaport and open the way to the shipment of arms and ammunition from Japanese sources.

The plans of Orozco's forces since their defeat last Thursday near Chihuahua have been vague and hazy. It appears that only part of the force has been sent to Juarez. A large share of the main body of Orozco in the fighting near Chihuahua is headed westward, with a report on the Pacific coast as its destination. The plan seems to be to attempt a junction with General Argueta and his rebel army in Durango.

Should this plan be made effective and rifles, cannon and ammunition begin to come in from Japan or any other source, it would open up the possibility of all manner of trouble. Thus it appears that just at the time when the rebels seemed crushed, they are planning new schemes which may compel this country even yet to take a hand in the Mexican situation.

It would seem almost incredible that the Japanese government could be thinking of giving arms and ammunition to the rebels at this critical time. However, it is asserted in dispatches that the rebels believe, if they can open up a seaport, a supply of arms and ammunition will be at once shipped in from a Japanese port.

The rebel plan is now described as the fact that in the recent occupation in the Senate over the Magdalena Bay affair it was brought out that General Orozco was sustaining mysterious relations with Japan. It was charged that Orozco was willing to give Japan important concessions in return for help.

Important Conclusions. New it is intimated that if the revolutionists can possess themselves of one or more strategic points on the western coast, with the help of Japan, the Japanese will be well repaid. This can mean only that the plan of the rebels is to give Japan important concessions on the west coast.

The official view in Washington of the reported intention of the rebels to make their last stand on the Pacific coast of Mexico is that the Madero government will be able to cope with the situation. General Huerta has shown such military capacity thus far here that considerable confidence is felt here that he will not permit any considerable body of the rebels to escape from him across the mountains west of Chihuahua.

It is perfectly plain that if such an escape is effected, even if Japan or Japanese individuals give the rebels aid, the result will be greatly to prolong the struggle and make the situation more serious.

The official view in Washington of the reported intention of the rebels to make their last stand on the Pacific coast of Mexico is that the Madero government will be able to cope with the situation. General Huerta has shown such military capacity thus far here that considerable confidence is felt here that he will not permit any considerable body of the rebels to escape from him across the mountains west of Chihuahua.

It is perfectly plain that if such an escape is effected, even if Japan or Japanese individuals give the rebels aid, the result will be greatly to prolong the struggle and make the situation more serious.

The official view in Washington of the reported intention of the rebels to make their last stand on the Pacific coast of Mexico is that the Madero government will be able to cope with the situation. General Huerta has shown such military capacity thus far here that considerable confidence is felt here that he will not permit any considerable body of the rebels to escape from him across the mountains west of Chihuahua.

It is perfectly plain that if such an escape is effected, even if Japan or Japanese individuals give the rebels aid, the result will be greatly to prolong the struggle and make the situation more serious.

The official view in Washington of the reported intention of the rebels to make their last stand on the Pacific coast of Mexico is that the Madero government will be able to cope with the situation. General Huerta has shown such military capacity thus far here that considerable confidence is felt here that he will not permit any considerable body of the rebels to escape from him across the mountains west of Chihuahua.

It is perfectly plain that if such an escape is effected, even if Japan or Japanese individuals give the rebels aid, the result will be greatly to prolong the struggle and make the situation more serious.

The official view in Washington of the reported intention of the rebels to make their last stand on the Pacific coast of Mexico is that the Madero government will be able to cope with the situation. General Huerta has shown such military capacity thus far here that considerable confidence is felt here that he will not permit any considerable body of the rebels to escape from him across the mountains west of Chihuahua.

It is perfectly plain that if such an escape is effected, even if Japan or Japanese individuals give the rebels aid, the result will be greatly to prolong the struggle and make the situation more serious.

BUSY WEEK IN CONGRESS

Archibald Case in House and Lorimer Case in Senate.

Washington, July 7.—Congress tomorrow will inaugurate a midsummer week of activity with final action on the Lorimer election case continuing in the Senate and probable impeachment steps in the House against Judge Robert W. Archibald of the Commerce Court, in connection with Cullum bank deals in Pennsylvania. It was declared to-night that the unanimous recommendation of Archibald's impeachment by the Senate would be adopted by the House without protracted debate as the Pennsylvania delegation has disclosed no intention of opposing it.

The Lorimer vote will be reached the middle or latter part of this week. "It is probable that there will be a majority of five or six against Senator Lorimer," said Senator Kern of Indiana, one of the leaders in the fight against Lorimer.

Senator Dillingham, of Vermont, chairman of the special investigating committee, whose majority reported in favor of Lorimer was not expected to make a speech. Some Senators who will vote for Lorimer conceded that the vote would be at least close. Mr. Lorimer has prepared to make a ringing speech in his own defense toward the last.

Senator Dillingham will include his speech tomorrow in Lorimer's defense, which Senators Fletcher of Florida, Jones of Washington and possibly others will supplement.

The House Rules Committee has arranged to give right of way to bills to prohibit gambling in cotton and to provide for a jury trial in contempt of court cases.

The beginning of the end of the investigation into the Florida everglades drainage matters in which the late Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and several officials of his department figured, probably will be reached Wednesday when the House Committee on Agriculture will hear the last witness. Chairman Moss expects to submit his report the middle of the month.

DEATH OF MRS. DECKER

Former President of General Federation of Women's Clubs.

San Francisco, July 7.—Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, of Denver, former president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, died here today at 10 o'clock to-night, following an operation performed several days ago for intestinal trouble.

The operation was performed last Friday, and Mrs. Decker rallied immediately after the operation. Her condition was considered hopeful, but after a change for the worse in the evening, she sank steadily. Mrs. Decker came here to attend the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. In the season of the convention, she was afflicted by unsuccessful pleurisy for an indomitable fund.

ELKS AT PORTLAND

Annual Session of Grand Lodge Will Open To-day.

Portland, Ore., July 7.—More than twenty special trains to carry nothing but regulars arrived here today and tonight bringing delegates to the meeting of the Grand Lodge Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, the first session of which will be held to-morrow. The grand forum which convenes all Elks, and all disputes between lodges and members and the credential committees held all day sessions. The meetings of the grand forum are secret.

The members of the credential committee said they would be ready to report shortly after the grand lodge session is called to order to-morrow morning. Three candidates for Grand Eastern Leading Knight have already announced themselves. They are Judge George Addison of Albany, N. Y.; James L. King of Topeka, Kansas; and Frank King of Independence, Mo.

L. P. Leverett of Keene, N. H., for Grand Inner Guard, a candidate for reelection is opposed by Fred Lee Clark of Albuquerque, N. M.

ROANOKE MAN KILLED